

*The cross exposes the way of the world
in a fantasyland where we hunger for that which cannot satisfy*

Walter Brueggemann

HOPE IN SUFFERING

consequences

“...if you suffer, it should not be as a murder or thief or any kind of criminal, or even as a meddler.”

1 Peter 4:15

circumstances

“if someone bears up under the pain
of unjust suffering”

1 Peter 3:19

contrast

If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.

...if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name.

...those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

...even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed.

(1 Peter 4:14, 16, 19, 3:14)

HOPE IN SUFFERING

...though now for a little while you may have had to suffer...

...after you have suffered a little while...

(1 Peter 1:6, 5:10)

...when Jesus is revealed...

...on the day [God] visits us...

...when his glory is revealed...

(1 Peter 1:7, 2:12, 4:13)

...rejoice inasmuch as you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed.

(1 Peter 4:13)

You can celebrate in your suffering now

because

you will celebrate with no more suffering later

...do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that has come on you to test you,...

...judgement begins with God's household.

(1 Peter 4:12, 17)

If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.

1 Peter 4:14

...those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

1 Peter 4:19
